

Derelict Seen At Honolulu

Only at rare intervals are derelict ships seen on the ocean. Rent derelicts are seen every day in this and in other cities. They are the generous, but improvident, people who believe in placing their earnings in a landlord's pocket, and not in a home for themselves. Don't drift along with the tide, deferring the time of buying until some future date. Do it now. Inquire at our office concerning bargains in homes.

With the issue of today the Aloha Aina, one of the leading Hawaiian newspapers of the city, suspends publication. The reason for this is not as yet given by the publisher, the issue of last Saturday merely making the announcement that at the end of this month no more Aloha Aina would be forthcoming and promising to explain today. It is stated, however, that the reason behind the demise of the publication is that the Democrats have withdrawn their support and that there is no further reason for the paper's being.

BILKED.

Fritz Kirschmann, New York's sealer of weights and measures, says that the public of the State loses $20,000,000 a year in short weight.

"When the public thinks of this," said Mr. Kirschmann, recently, its blood boils. Here, though, is an incident that should cool the public's blood a little.

"I'll preface the incident with the statement that very, very few of our dealers are dishonest, and that $20,000,000 is a very small percentage of the annual expenditure of the people of this State.

"Now, to resume: 'A man told me the other day how he said to his son with a groan:

"Jerome, Bylk, the grocer, tells me that he has had to discharge you for swindling him. This is a terrible disgrace to bring on the family, Jerome."

"The boy flushed.

"It was all a mistake, father," he said. "I didn't mean to do it, really. Mr. Bylk gave me some beeswax to put under the scales, and I put it on the wrong side."

SILVA'S TOGGERY

ELKS BUILDING, KING STREET

THE YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE GRAND RALLY

There was a large attendance at the Young People's rally held in the First M. E. church last night, and a fine spirit of enthusiasm pervaded the gathering from first to last. But for the absence of two scholastic societies, the building would have been too small for comfort. As it was a few had to find seats in the class-room.

The praise service was in charge of Vice President Dutot, Miss Moyer of the Y. W. C. A. and Secretary Miss Rica A. Soares acting as accompanists on the piano and organ. The impetus thus given at the start was added to by the fine rendering of the offertory by Mrs. Hare.

The new pastor of the First M. E. church, Rev. David Crane, conducted the devotional exercises with power and fervor.

The address of the evening, by Rev. Mr. McKeever of the Christian church, was the utterance of a manly man who has wrestled successfully with the problems confronting the church and Christian workers at the present time. His message was an inspiration to all, and will leave an abiding influence for good in the hearts of the young.

The beautiful attendance banner of the regular church societies was won by the Junior C. E. of the Portuguese church, with an attendance of ninety-seven per cent. The scholastic banner was again won by the C. E. of the Japanese Makiki boarding school, with a perfect attendance.

In presenting the banners, Rev. Mr. Wadman made a brief, but felicitous address in the course of which he stated that while on his recent visit to the States it had given him much pleasure to speak frequently of the good work being done by the Oahu Young People's Union.

"Didn't you win anything in your suit for damages?" "No." "Why didn't you engage a bright lawyer to take your part?" "I did, but he took my all."—Philadelphia Press.

"You say she has her voice under perfect control?" "Quite." "Then why doesn't she choke it off sometimes?"—Washington Herald.
